

LOCAL NEWS.

Board of Supervisors meet at Accomac C. H., Monday, November 14th.

Mrs. Sophie Melson of our town has been confined to her home by sickness since Monday.

Mr. John W. Sturgis advertises valuable personal property for sale at public auction in this issue.

Mr. Julius F. Onley and Miss Azie S. Scott were married at the Leemont M. P. Parsonage on the 9th inst., Rev. J. E. T. Ewell officiating.

Every precinct almost in Accomac, last Tuesday, was so largely Democratic, that each can justly lay claim to the honor of being the banner precinct.

Our hotel is now being painted on the inside and the prospects now are that it will soon be ready for occupancy and be opened to the public at an early date.

The Press Association which furnishes us Talmage's sermon has again disappointed us, but we will be able without doubt to get it regularly in the future.

The time of the sale of the storehouse of J. Lee Winder, at Onancock, has been changed, as will be referred by reference to advertisement, to Saturday, November 19th.

Tangier, heretofore almost solidly Republican, was borne along on the tidal Democratic wave which has swept the country and went almost solidly Democratic on last Tuesday.

Another large line of new goods will be received by Ames, Shield & Co., to day. The buyer for the entire week for the purpose of replenishing their stock.

Mr. Ritchie F. Ward, an attaché for several years of the ENTERPRISE office, with a situation now in Government office in the city of Washington, came home on Tuesday to vote for Cleveland and Jones.

The reputation of the Maltby House, Baltimore, for first class accommodations and low rates is fully sustained under the present management. This fact with its central location should recommend it to all travelers.

The vote for Cleveland at Accomac C. H. in 1884 was 422 and the same this year—a coincidence which was construed by the clerk of our circuit court, before another poll had been heard from, to mean, "Grover, Grover four more years of Grover."

Farewell sermons will be in order in the M. E. Churches, South, throughout the county to-morrow. It is the last Sunday before the one hundred and tenth session of the Virginia Conference which meets in Granby street church, Norfolk, next Wednesday.

Sheriff John H. Wise will sell at Hoffman's wharf, on Saturday, November 19th inst., at 11:30 a. m., a batteau, said to belong to one George Collins, and forfeited to the Commonwealth—together with her sails, rigging, scrapes, dredges, and all other appurtenances. Terms cash.

The slogan, "wait until you hear from Accomac," should be changed, to wait until you hear from the Eastern Shore to the future when our friends on the Western Shore "are snowed under" and need help. Northampton is certainly entitled to a place in the front rank of the Democratic column of Virginia.

Henry Rogers, colored, an outlaw from North Carolina, was arrested by constable E. O. F. Custis in Ocean river on last Saturday, and lodged in jail at Accomac C. H., on following day. On Monday he left for Durham, N. C., in charge of chief of police Woodall of that city, where he was held for housebreaking and other crimes.

The creditors of Wm. M. Riley, Samuel J. Lewis, William East of Wm., George Downing, colored, and Edward Bevans, colored, are requested to present their claims with proper proof to Samuel T. Ross, commissioner of accounts, on or before November 28, 1892.

The trustees of Margaret Academy will meet at Keller, Friday, December 2nd, 12 o'clock to decide as to the disposition of the funds in their hands. The claims of every locality on the Eastern Shore will be heard on that occasion and the fund will be given for the establishment of a school in that section, which in the opinion of the trustees is best entitled to the same.

Letters patent have been granted to Messrs. John W. Duncan and Thos. B. Quinby, Onancock, in smoke stack and conductor, which conveys all cinders to rear of last car of train. The invention is not only a very useful one, but promises to be very lucrative to our ingenious young friends—an offer of $25,000 having already been declined for same. They already are in receipt of offers for the introduction of same into all quarters of the Globe. If the inventions meet the objects for which intended and there seems to be no doubt that they will, a fortune to the inventors seems to be assured.

JOHN E. MAPP,
Supt. Schools.

Nov. 11th, 1892.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Onancock.

Business very brisk here this fall. Onancock schools are in full blast.

R. J. Parker has completed a neat dwelling on Johnson avenue.

Mr. John Warren, of Concord, is visiting Mr. Tyndall and attending Rev. H. M. Wharton's meetings.

Mr. Tully A. Joyner of the Eastern Shore Steamboat Company and Capt. Thos. Crockett, of Tangier Island, were in town this week, guests of Prof. G. G. Joyner.

Rev. H. M. Wharton, the great evangelist, is having most excellent meetings this week in the Baptist church. Crowds come to hear him notwithstanding the weather. Good results are following his efforts.

It is rumored that a Northampton gentleman is going to take one of Onancock's ladies in a day or so. Several gallants from that county have been in town very recently prospecting matrimonially, but Onancock "boys" are watching them.

Last Tuesday, it was noticed, that the large Democratic banner over Main street could be heard "flopping" at a long distance. Horses tied near the banner would have to be moved, so loud did the banner "flop." This "flopping" kept up all day Tuesday and through night. Such a thing was never known in these parts before. Was it due to any peculiar condition of the atmosphere, or was it an omen of a political cyclone in U. S.? Many think the latter.

Bloxom.

Miss Mary E. Hinnman, very ill of late, is now convalescent.

Rev. J. W. Nicholson will leave for Conference next Tuesday.

Mr. David H. Bloxom has just completed a handsome dwelling.

Sweet potatoes are selling from $1.75 to $2 per barrel at this place.

Rev. R. L. Waterfield will preach at Woodberry, Sunday 12th, 7 p. m.

The cards are out for the marriage of Miss Sally Rayfield and Mr. Jas. Nelson.

Mr. W. S. Waterman, quite sick for past three weeks, is now very much better.

Mrs. J. W. Bowdoin has gone to New Orleans, for her daughter and to visit friends and relatives.

Rev. W. W. Wood has a splendid meeting in progress at Modestown. About twenty five persons have been converted.

Mr. Eugene Godwin will close out his property next Wednesday, at public auction, and proposes to leave soon thereafter for Wilmington, Del., his future home.

Belle Haven?

Miss Bessie Kellam, of Horntown, is visiting Miss Fannie Anderson.

Miss Mamie Walker, of Hoffmans wharf, is visiting her sister Mrs. J. W. Ward.

The Belle Haven Furniture Co. have just received a new line of parlor suits, window shades and oil cloth.

Rev. R. D. Stinson, our former pastor, will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, 11 o'clock.

Mr. N. T. Fosque, our popular jeweler, is having a new store room fitted up and will occupy same at an early date.

Little George, son of G. Lloyd Doughty, accidentally got his collar bone fractured last Friday, while playing with some boys.

The party given by Misses Mabel and Mary Kellam, on Tuesday night, at the residence of Mr. Al. Meares, was much enjoyed by all the young folks as well as some older ones.

Temperanceville.

Election day passed off very quietly.

Dr. O. F. Byrd, will be absent from his office from the 14th to 18th inst., inclusive.

Our people are making preparations for great rejoicing and will celebrate the victory of the party.

Our oldest citizen who has not been able to walk for several months had himself conveyed to the polls in a "push cart" by three stalwart Democrats and cast his vote for "Grover" amid the cheers of the people.

Report to the Governor of Maryland on the Sterling Case.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 7.—Governor Brown has received a communication from Deputy Commander Joshua S. Thomas, commanding the State oyster-police schooner Helen M. Baughman, in reference to the shooting of Isaac Sterling, a Marylander, in Pocomoke sound, October 29th, by one of the Virginia oyster police officers. Captain Thomas says he has made a thorough investigation of the shooting in the presence of reputable witnesses. In his report he states that Capt. John Gaskins, of the Virginia police boat, admits that he shot Sterling. The Virginia police official also stated, the report of Captain Thomas says, that he had no knowledge whatever of the line between Maryland and Virginia waters. Captain Thomas adds: "I think this shooting entirely unwarranted and cold-blooded. Citizens of Somerset are worked up over the affair." This is the first official report Governor Brown has received about the shooting, and he will formally bring the matter before the Governor of Virginia in a few days in accordance with an opinion from Attorney General Poe.—Baltimore Sun.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, it has seemed good to Almighty God in His merciful providence to take from us our beloved friend, Sadie D. Willis, therefore resolved, 1st, That we, the teachers and scholars of Belle Haven Methodist Sunday school, have lost thereby a dear friend, a faithful worker and a loving teacher.

2nd, That it is our blessed privilege to know that she was not one of those asleep at the post of duty, but ever alert, devoted and consecrated, illustrating at all times and in all places that earnestness, dignity and fidelity which those alone who have the baptism of the spirit possess.

3rd, That we commend especially to the scholars of her class the zeal with which she followed her Master's service and pray that her works may be crowned by bringing each of them into our Father's Kingdom.

4th, That we extend to her bereaved family our loving sympathy, together with the comforting words, "They which sleep in Jesus, will God bring with Him."

5th, That a copy of these resolutions be placed upon the records of the Sunday school.

Mrs. BETTIE A. RUS.

Mrs. MAGGIE MAPP.

Miss MILLIE BULL.
